ISOLANA

PROJECT Story

Isolana, with its stem 'Isola' is derived from the Italian word for Island, and 'Lana' the quintessential island companion. Inspired by the essence of resort living and removed from the hustle and bustle of the city center, the Isolana has been meticulously designed to provide it's residents an ecosystem to achieve the perfect rhythm.

Located in the Urban Inland community of Island A, the Isolana invites you to explore a vibrant residential ecosystem. Enveloped within lush green parks on 3 sides of the residential tower, our residents have direct access to the communal garden parks landscaped by the Master Developer, a distinguishing feature of our plot.

Designed by architectural maestro Tony Ashai, the concept of the Isolana is one of the 'dancing balconies'. A marvel in its own right, the scattered angular positioning of our balconies across the building façades are an ode to the winds movements across the island, swaying through the inland urban area turning through its luscious parks and lakes, and syncing to a perfect rhythm.
